Assignment - 1

Virtual box is a free virtualisation program that makes it extremely convenient to set up virtual machines on different operating system

Installing Virtual box on Windows 10

Step1: Open a browser and open the virtual box download page and click the windows host link. The latest virtual box version as of this writing is b·13·6. Save the installer somewhere you can quickly locate it Step2: Locate the virtual box installer file using your File explorer. Double click the file to launch the virtual box setup wizard.

Step3: click next on the first screen. This action tells the wizard that you want to install virtual box

Step4: Do the following actions on the custom setup screen

+ You'll see a link of the features the wizard will install. In this example leave the default selection

+ click next when you're ready to continue

Step5: On the next screen you'll see a list of the shortcuts. and file association The installation will create. check or upgrade the items you wish to include or exclude and click next

Step6: On the next screen you'll see a warning about networking. The setup process will install a virtual network adapter which may cause your network connection to disconnect momentarily. click yes to continue

Step7. Finally you'll see a screen asking you to confirm The installation. click install to install virtualbox on window 10

Step8. The installation process takes several minutes depending on your system speed. click Finish to close The wizard after The installation and start using virtualbox.